- 5 You are concerned that there is a lack of clarity about the reporting lines for the areas you are responsible for as Transport Manager. You want to take responsibility for the departments under your control, but not for operations that you do not manage.

You have also been asked to advise OCR's Managing Director about the redundancy plans described in the case study.

- (a) Use the staff list provided by the Human Resources Manager to draft an organisation chart for the Transport Department. Include only yourself and the staff reporting directly or indirectly to you.

Note:

You MUST show clear reporting lines.

- (b) James Smith’s plans for the future are set out in the case study. They include closing the Oadby operating centre and the warehouse operation at Leicester. He accepts that some staff will have to made redundant.

Outline THREE actions that OCR will have to take to achieve the planned redundancies.
