- 2 Pennskol College has asked ST to give them timings for the proposed trip to Angers. They have stressed the importance of adhering to their requirements as set out in the case study.

Prepare the driver schedule for the outward journey to Angers commencing when the driver begins duty at ST's depot and ending with the arrival at Angers.

Notes:

Local times MUST be given throughout.

Destination MUST be given for each driving period.

Symbols are not acceptable for tachograph mode.

Start time	Finish time	Driver's activity description	Tachograph mode

[15]

- 3 Your Finance Manager has asked you to work out the likely cost of the coach hire for the Angers trip.

Calculate the cost to ST of operating the Angers tour. Do not include ferry or road toll charges, as these will be paid directly by Pennskol College.

Notes:

You MUST name each cost and give a total for each item, to the nearest penny.

You MUST show all of your workings.

- 4 Pennskol College has asked you to schedule their proposed four, six and ten day tours, which will be operated entirely with the Pennskol dedicated coach.

Use the information in the case study to plan one four week cycle for this coach, completing each of the tours once, showing departure and return days for each tour. The cycle should commence with the Glasgow/Edinburgh visit. The four-week schedule for this coach must include two consecutive days at the depot for inspection and maintenance work.

Start Day	End Day	Tour

[5]

- 5 In order to prepare more accurate quotations for future work, it will be necessary to allocate a proportion of the cost of the in-house maintenance facility to each vehicle in the fleet.

ST will allocate all costs to the fleet, proportionately, on the basis of seating capacity.

Using the information in the case study, calculate the maintenance cost per kilometre to be allocated to each 49-seat coach, each 41-seat bus and the 35-seat coach.

Notes:

You MUST show all of your workings.
You MUST give your answers to the nearest penny.
