4 If OCR's proposed move to the new operating centre goes ahead as described in the case study, the company will need to take certain actions . These include applying to vary its operator licence, with an application for a new operating centre, and notifying the Traffic Commissioner of the change in its registered office address.

(a) Identify FOUR items of information which are required to be included in the variation application.

6 OCR intends to buy a coach to work on the proposed service to and from Roasyth. JET would like to expand the company’s coach business into ski shuttle operations, buying five extra coaches and seven 1.5 tonne box trailers to transport the skis. If these plans go forward, the company will need to provide the Traffic Commissioner with evidence that it meets the financial standing criterion.

(a) Calculate the total level of financial standing (in £) that OCR will need to prove it has access to when applying for the increased authorisation.

NOTE:

You MUST show all your workings.
